

AALTEN A COASTAL PLACE PART II

A SIGN IN THE HEAVENS;

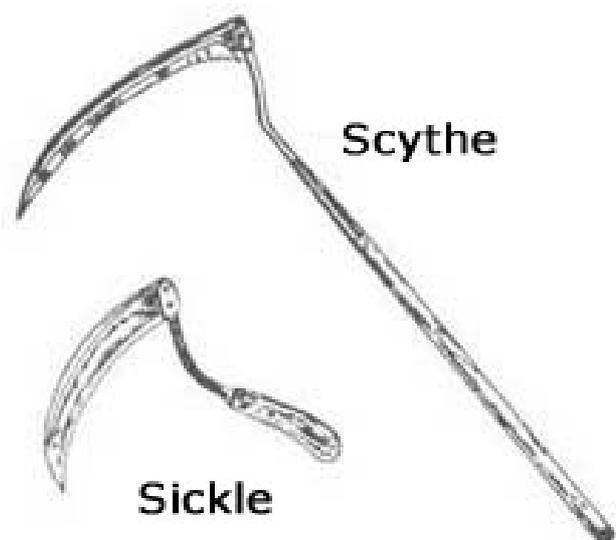

THE SICKLE BEFORE THE HARVEST...

During the second eruption of the volcano Eyjafjallajökull (from 14/15th of April 2010), large amounts of ash was spewed into the air which spread in a south-eastern direction. Because of the north-western direction of the wind, this ash moved directly towards Europe, including the Netherlands. In our eyes this combination of circumstances was very remarkable because this ash cloud showed the same course as the “mega-wave” when this would come from the direction of Iceland towards the Netherlands. As everyone is aware of, this event drew worldwide attention because of the serious disruptions in the air-traffic. All eyes were set on Iceland...

On Saturday the 17th April 2010 the Lord showed us that this ash cloud signifies a “sign in the heaven”. Not only the event itself, but also the shape of the ash cloud would convey a message. I wondered what this sign could be and then heard the word: “sickle”.

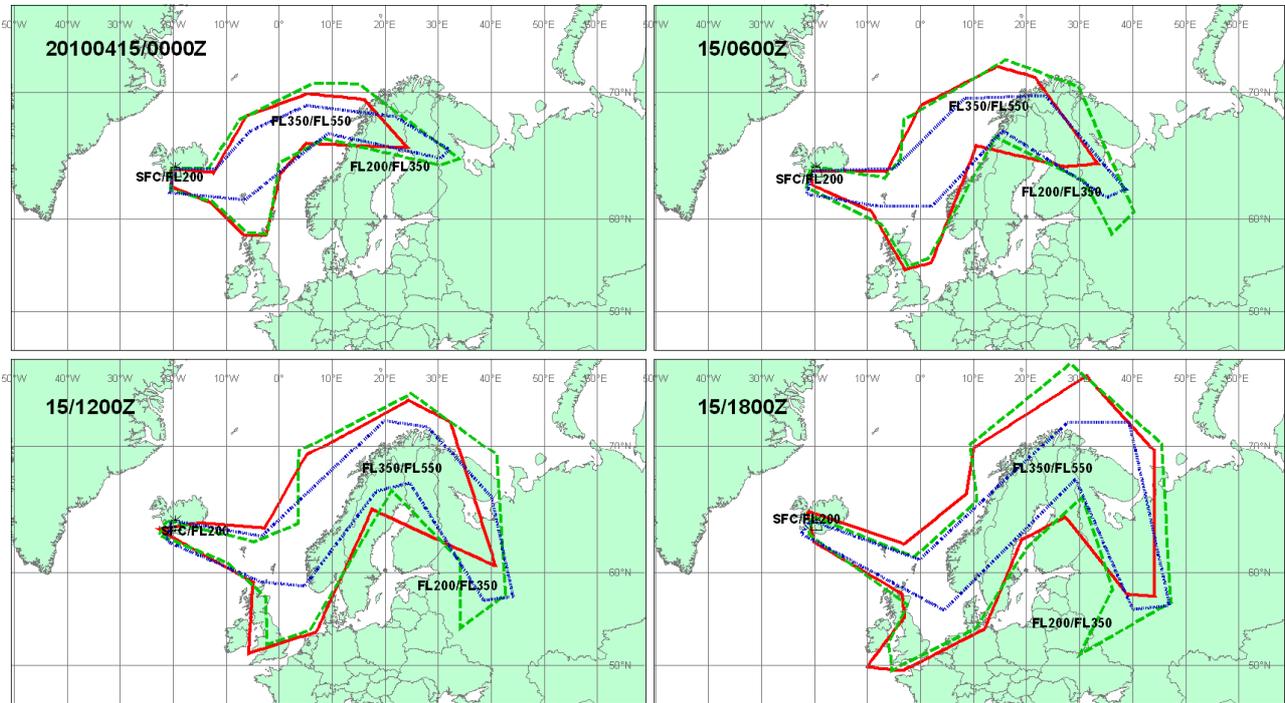

Because the ash cloud caused great problems in the air traffic, meteorological institutions and other research centers occupied themselves with the mapping of this ash cloud. The shape of the ash cloud is clearly visible on these maps. The ash cloud had during the first days after the eruption clearly the shape of A SICKLE!

The Sickle and Scythe: An agricultural tool which is used for the cutting of the harvest or unwanted weeds.

The Lord Jesus, God of all the heavens and the earth, is speaking! The harvest is ready. The fruit of this rebelling and sinful world has come to maturity. God’s “Sickle” is ready to harvest. For yet, a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry (Heb. 10:37).

“And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe. And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped. And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs” (Revelation 14:14-20)

The judgment which came over Israel, Jerusalem and the Temple in the year 70 AD, shall now, in this time just prior the return of Yeshua the Messiah, fall on the nations because they have rejected the Messiah and trampled under their feet the grace offered to them (see 2 Thess. 1:8). The world is likened unto a coffin, and the lid thereof is nearly closed. The time to escape death and to find life in Christ is short! God’s SICKLE of His Wrath is hovering over the nations. The time to be reconciled with God through the blood of the Lamb is coming to an end. Now the Light is yet with us; soon the lid shall seal the coffin forever. The door of salvation will be closed...

The Jewish historian Flavius Josephus, in service of the Romans, lets us know through his writing: “Wars of the Jews Book”, VI, Chapter V.3, that in the year 66 AD (4 years before the fall of Jerusalem in 70 AD), there appeared a star in the shape of a sword above Jerusalem, which stayed there for one year as a sign for the coming destruction on the city. In the same way the Lord gives us many signs that His coming is nigh. “He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red. And in the morning, It will be foul weather today: for the sky is red and lowering. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times” (Mat. 16:2-3)?

The majority of Israel of that time did not recognize the Messiah and she did not see that Israel had become ripe for God’s judgment. The world (and even the majority of the professing Christians) of our time, do also not recognize the Messiah, and do not see that the nations and the apostate church therein have become ripe for God’s judgment. The question: “Can ye not discern the signs of the times” is also crying to our generation...

The Hebrew language has more words for the word “sickle”:

1. H2770 ; חֶרְמֵשׁ; chermêsh; kher-mashe'; From H2763; a sickle (as cutting): - sickle. [see Deut. 16:9]

H2763; חָרַם; châram; khaw-ram'; A primitive root; to seclude; specifically (by a ban) to devote to religious uses (especially destruction); physically and reflexively to be blunt as to the nose: - make accursed, consecrate, (utterly) destroy, devote, forfeit, have a flat nose, utterly (slay, make away).

H2764; חָרַם חֶרֶם; chêrem cherem; khay'-rem, kheh'-rem; From H2763; physically (as shutting in) a net (either literally or figuratively); usually a doomed object; abstractly extermination: - (ac-)curse (-d, -d thing), dedicated thing, things which should have been utterly destroyed, (appointed to) utter destruction, devoted (thing), net.

[With other words: doomed for total destruction; a banned thing; dedicated for termination].

Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse (Mal. 4:5-6). [=H2764; חָרַם; chêrem cherem khay'-rem, kheh'-rem From H2763] Lest I come and smite the earth, so to speak, with the “sickle”.... The sign of a sickle in the heavens means that the world will be smitten with “utter destruction”. She is dedicated to God for judgment and destruction.

For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed [= charam] them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter (Is. 34:2).

2. A different Hebrew word for sickle is: “maggal”; מַגָּל; Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great [Joel 3:13].

The Sickle of God is hovering over the Netherlands and the nations. Time is short. Israel is back in the land. The cup of the sins of the nations and the apostate churches is full. The last, seventh vial of God’s Wrath (Revelation 16) shall be poured out. What are we to do, believers in Christ?

First of all we need to realize that we are not living in “normal” times! Extraordinary times, require extraordinary measures. We must not think that our lives, our lifestyle, shall continue in the same way as before. Our generation of Christians has the special (!) privilege to see the return of Yeshua; our eyes will not close in natural death (see 1 Cor. 15:51 and 1 Thess. 4:15)! On the other side, this means that we will have to go through a troublesome period of time wherein everything which cannot enter into God’s Kingdom shall be judged and removed (Heb. 12:26-28; Mat. 13:41; Dan. 7:14; Mat. 13:30). We have to spiritually as well as physically prepare ourselves for this.

A conscious total surrender of our lives in the Hands of the Lord Jesus is His call to us. We are to lay down our own will and thoughts and submit ourselves to God’s will and counsel. The Lord has a specific plan for His disciples; now is the time to seek God’s specific counsel and to act accordingly. We cannot and must not presume that we are already walking in His (perfect) will. The Lord calls us to His altar, where we lay ourselves down, without any reservations, as a “living sacrifice” (Rom. 12:1-2), so that His will may be revealed to us. Let us place all our members in the service of God’s Kingdom (see Rom. 6:13).

Many Christians are perhaps thinking that these troublesome times will not touch them. They have placed their trust in the teaching of the so-called “secret rapture” which causes them to presume that the Lord will take them out of the world before “the sickle” will strike the nations. This is a lie of the Futuristic School and a devious blindfold of Satan. The Lord Jesus does not return twice but once. There is only one return! The Word of God does not teach us ANYWHERE that we can expect the Lord to come back twice. We are dealing here with a manner of interpretation (Futurism) and a lot can be said about this, but we reserve this for another writing.

Be free from Babylon. Have nothing to do with the apostate churches that do not stand in God's Truth. Above all, AVOID the churches that through the ecumenical movement have formed a relationship with the Roman idol church, because such will not escape God's wrath!

The Roman Church (including many of her likeminded daughters) is without doubt the continuation of the old idolatrous Babylonian religion with the succession of popes at her head as "Pontifex Maximus" (High Priest). The antichrist is the replacing (anti = also: instead of) Christ on earth and he has already been amongst us for many centuries. God is warning us one more time: "And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities" (Rev. 18:4-5). Whosoever will nevertheless still associate with her, and receive of her mark, name or number, or worships the image, shall receive of God's wrath and will have no part in the first resurrection in agreement with God's Word (see Rev. 14:11-12; 15:2).

*And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up forever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus (Rev. 14:8-12).

And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years (Rev. 20:4-6).

Let us keep the commandments of God, strive for that pure faith once delivered unto the saints (Jud. 1:3) and utter one more time the protesting voice against the Roman antichrist. May the Lord grant us that we will not be lukewarm in this witness, so that He will not "spue us out of His mouth" (Rev. 3:16). "And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him" (Mal. 3:17). "For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come (Jer. 51:33). The SICKLE is hovering above the head of "Great Babylon"! Flee therefore from her before it is too late. Time is short!

Aalten shall be a coastal place... The Netherlands is no more. She also shall be humbled by the Sickle of God's wrath. She has become unfaithful to God's great grace which was given her. She has abused and betrayed God's goodness and longsuffering. The Netherlands as a nation has allowed Rome within her doors and the remaining are saying: there is no God. Also the majority of the Church is bowing her knees before the Roman Baal. This shall no longer remain standing!

On this map it can be seen how “Aalten” is situated at the beginning of the so-called “East Dutch Plateau”. The geographical circumstances seem to confirm the Word of God which says: “Aalten shall be a coastal place”. It is not so difficult to imagine how the greater part of the Netherlands will disappear under the waters when the dikes break in combination with a megawave, and how we are then dealing with a new coastal line.

It is also important to realize that this event will take place while we as Christians are still on the earth. Do not place your false trust in the so-called “secret rapture” which teaches that we will be taken away before these judgments will strike the nations. We are to seek God’s Face NOW, that we may know what He requires of us in these last years. He desires that we LIVE in Him and glorify Him in the days wherein God will judge the “Sodom” and “Egypt” of our time. May the Lord Jesus speak clearly to each one of us!

Yeshua said to the generation of believers who lived in the time of God’s judgment on Israel (70 AD): And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto. For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled (Luk. 21:20-22). What would have happened to these believers if they had ignored this warning and as a consequence would be confronted with these Roman armies?

For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ (1 Thes. 5:9). Let us therefore listen carefully to His Voice and seek His counsel NOW, so that we may LIVE in that day wherein many will die because they have not listened to His voice. “We will not have this man to reign over us” (Luk. 19:14), is the cry of many, but we bow down before His Throne and Sovereignty, saying: be truly Lord over us, and guide us in Thy ways. We lay down our own will; reveal Thy will to us and give us the desire, the strength and the courage to do Thy will. We desire to glorify Thy great Name, and to walk as children of the Light, so that the day of darkness will not come over us as a thief, but that to the contrary we will be completely prepared in the day of Thy great Wrath. It was light in Goshen, when Thou didst smite Egypt. Place us as Thy people in the Goshen of Thy will, wherein we will experience Thy protection. Cause us to hear Thy voice and obey, and hear us when we cry to Thee in the days of peace and in the days of calamities. Teach us to trust Thee completely in all things, great and small. Deliver us from the lukewarm, Laodicean spirit which oppresses us. Convince us of our sins and place a fervent love in us for Thee and for one another. Deliver us from all evil and sanctify us unto Thine faithful servants. May we be useful in Thy hands, for Thy Kingdom, and Thy glory, in these last years. We thank Thee, Adonai Yeshua, for Thy great love and longsuffering. May many yet be found by Thy grace.... Amen.
